OF
MARGUERITE CASEY FOUNDATION

As Amended November 13, 2017

(A non-profit corporation incorporated under the Washington Non-Profit Corporation Act, RCW 24.03)

PART I

Powers

The corporation shall have all of the powers of a nonprofit corporation permitted under the Washington Nonprofit Corporation Act, Ch. 24.03 RCW, as now or hereafter in effect (“Act”), which powers shall be exercised by its Board of Directors and officers.

PART II

Board of Directors

A. Number. The business affairs and property of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors, consisting of not less than three (3) and no more than eleven (11) persons. The Board of Directors, by resolution, may increase or decrease the number of directors, provided that no decrease in number shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director, or reducing the number of directors to less than three (3).

B. Qualification and Election. Directors shall be individuals who have reached the age of majority and shall have such other qualifications as the Board of Directors may prescribe by resolution or amendment to these Bylaws. Unless the Board of Directors is reducing the number of directors as provided in these Bylaws, the Board of Directors shall appoint a successor director to replace each director whose term is ending. The Board of Directors may make any such appointment at the annual meeting at which the director’s term is scheduled to end or at any other meeting not earlier than six (6) months prior to such annual meeting.

C. Term of Office. Directors shall serve terms of four (4) years, with each director serving for a maximum of three (3) full terms. To the extent possible, terms shall be staggered so that one-quarter (1/4) of the directors’ terms end each year. The Board of Directors may elect directors to terms of fewer than four (4) years as necessary to ensure that terms remain evenly staggered. Terms shorter than four (4) years, including terms fully or partly served before the effective date of these Amended and Restated Bylaws, and partial terms shall not count toward the limit of three (3) terms. Each director shall hold office for the term for which he or she is elected and until his or her successor shall have been elected and qualified. Adoption of these Amended and Restated Bylaws shall not alter the term of any director already in office on the effective date of these Amended and Restated Bylaws.

D. Vacancies. Except as otherwise provided by law, vacancies in the Board of Directors, whether caused by resignation, death, retirement, disqualification, removal or otherwise, may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors attending any meeting of the Board of Directors, even though less than a quorum is present. A director elected to fill any vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor and until his or her successor is elected and qualified.

E. Board Discipline; Removal. The Board of Directors shall have the sole and exclusive authority and responsibility to evaluate the performance of and take disciplinary action, including removal from the Board of Directors, with regard to all of the corporation's directors. At a meeting called expressly for that purpose, the Board of Directors may remove by a majority vote of all of the directors then in office one or more directors for cause, as long as there is at least one director remaining after such removal. For purposes of this Part II.E, "cause" shall mean (1) any act or omission for which the director is not entitled to indemnification under the corporation's Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, or (2) repeated failure by the director to comply with the terms of the corporation's Board of Director's manual.

F. Quorum and Voting. At any meeting of the Board of Directors, the presence in person of a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. If a quorum is present, the act of a majority of the directors present at such meeting shall be the act of the Board of Directors of this corporation except as may be otherwise specifically provided by statute, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws. A director present at a Board of Directors meeting at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless (a) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting; (b) the director delivers his or her dissent or abstention to such action to the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof; or (c) the director delivers such dissent or abstention to the secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such right to dissent or abstain shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

G. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting, shall be held each year in the month of May at a time and place designated by the Chair or otherwise specified by resolution.

H. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such place, day and hour as shall from time to time be fixed by resolution of the Board.

I. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any place at any time whenever called by the Chair, or any two or more directors.

J. Notice of Meetings. No notice of the annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be required. No notice of any regular meeting shall be required, if the time and place thereof shall have been fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors and a copy of such resolution delivered in the form of a record to every director at least three (3) days before the first meeting held pursuant thereto. In all other cases, for any meeting of the Board of Directors or any committee designated by the Board of Directors for which notice is required by these Bylaws or by applicable Washington law, a notice stating the place, date, and hour of the meeting shall be delivered prior thereto in the form of a record to each director at his or her address shown on the records of the corporation. The method of notice need not be the same to each director. If notice is provided in a tangible medium, it shall be given at least two (2) days prior to the meeting, and may be transmitted by: mail, private carrier, or personal delivery; telegraph or teletype; or telephone, wire, or wireless equipment that transmits a facsimile of the notice. If mailed, the notice shall be deemed effective when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the director at his or her address as it appears on the records of the corporation with postage thereon prepaid. Other forms of notice in a tangible medium described in this paragraph are effective when received.

If notice is provided in an electronic transmission, it must satisfy the following requirements:

1. Notice to directors in an electronic transmission that otherwise complies with these Bylaws is effective only with respect to directors who have consented, in the form of a record, to receive notices by electronic transmission.

(a) Notice to directors includes material that these Bylaws require or permit to accompany the notice.

(b) A director who provides consent, in the form of a record, to receipt of notices by electronic transmission shall designate in the consent the message format accessible to the recipient, and the address, location, or system to which these notices may be sent by electronic transmission.

(c) A director who has consented to receipt of notices by electronic transmission may revoke the consent by delivering a revocation to the corporation in the form of a record.

(d) The consent of any director is revoked if the corporation is unable to deliver two consecutive notices by electronic transmission in accordance with the consent, and this inability becomes known to the secretary of the corporation or other person responsible for giving the notice. The inadvertent failure by the corporation to treat this inability as a revocation does not invalidate any meeting or other action.

2. Notice to directors who have consented to receipt of notices by electronic transmission may be provided by posting the notice on an electronic network and delivering to the director a separate record of the posting, together with instructions regarding how to obtain access to this posting on the electronic network.

3. Notice provided in an electronic transmission is effective when it:

(a) Is given by electronic transmission to an address, location, or system designated by the recipient for that purpose, and is made pursuant to the consent provided by the recipient; or

(b) Has been posted on an electronic network and a separate record of the posting has been delivered to the recipient together with instructions regarding how to obtain access to the posting on the electronic network.

K. Waiver of Notice.

1. Waiver by Communication. Whenever any notice is required to be given to any director under the provisions of these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation or applicable Washington law, a waiver thereof in the form of a record executed by the director entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

2. Waiver by Attendance. Attendance of a director or a committee member at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director or a committee member attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

L. Directors' Action Without a Meeting. Any corporate action required or permitted by the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, or by the laws of the state of Washington, to be taken at a meeting of the directors of the corporation or at a meeting of a committee of the Board may be taken without a meeting if a consent, in the form of a record, setting forth the action so taken, shall be executed by all of the directors or all of the members of the committee, as the case may be, entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consents may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same document. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote, and may be described as such. Any such consent shall be inserted in the minute book as if it were the minutes of a meeting of the Board of Directors.

M. Committees. By resolution adopted by a majority of the directors in office, the Board of Directors may establish one or more committees of the Board consisting of two (2) or more directors. Committees of the Board shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors, to the extent provided in such resolution and subject to any limitations imposed by law. The Chair shall serve, ex officio, as a voting member of each committee. The Board of Directors further may establish advisory committees consisting of such person(s) as the Board of Directors shall appoint, including but not limited to directors. Advisory committees shall not have or exercise any authority of the Board of Directors.

PART III

A. Officers Enumerated — Election; Powers. The officers of the corporation shall be a Chair, a President, a Vice Chair, a Secretary and a Treasurer and such other officers as the Board of Directors may designate ("Officer"). Officers shall be elected by the Board of Directors at each annual meeting of directors, to hold office until the next annual meeting of the corporation, or until his or her successor is elected and qualified, if not removed earlier by a vote of the Board of Directors. The Officers shall have the powers described in this Part III but at all times be subject to the authority and direction of the Board of Directors. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of President and Secretary.

G. The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the care and custody, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the corporation, and shall cause to be kept regular books of account. The Treasurer shall cause to be deposited all funds and other valuable effects in the name of the corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. In general, the Treasurer shall perform all of the duties incident to the office of Treasurer, and such other duties as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

H. Vacancies. Vacancies in any Officer position arising from any cause may be filled by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting.

I. Compensation. The salaries, if any, of the directors and all Officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

PART IV

As set forth in the Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall have no members.

6. Such other records as may be necessary or advisable.

B. Indemnification Rights of Directors, Officers, Employees and Agents.

1. The indemnification rights and the right to advancement of expenses of the Corporation's Directors shall be as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation and these 'Bylaws. The procedures of paragraph IX.C. shall apply to such indemnification rights and advancement of expenses unless the Board of Directors adopts or approves further indemnification and expense advancement arrangements as may be permitted by law.

2. The indemnification rights of the Corporation's Officers shall be as set forth in these Bylaws. The Corporation shall indemnify its Officers, to the full extent permitted by law, subject to RCW 23B.08.510 through RCW 23B.08.550, against Liability arising out of a Proceeding to which such individual was made a Party because the individual is or was an Officer of the Corporation. The Corporation shall advance Expenses incurred by such Officer who is a Party to a Proceeding in advance of final disposition of the Proceeding, as provided herein.

3. The Corporation may, by action of its Board of Directors from time to time, provide indemnification and pay expenses in advance of the final disposition of a Proceeding to Employees and Agents of the Corporation with the same scope and effect as the provisions of this Article with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of Directors and Officers of the Corporation or pursuant to rights granted pursuant to, or provided by, the Washington Business Corporation Act, as applied to nonprofit corporations, or otherwise.

C. Procedure for Seeking Indemnification and/or Advancement of Expenses.

1. Notification and Defense of Claim. Indemnitee shall promptly notify the Corporation, in the form of a record, of any Proceeding for which indemnification could be sought under this Article or the Articles of Incorporation. In addition, Indemnitee shall give the Corporation such information and cooperation as it may reasonably require and as shall be within Indemnitee's power. With respect to any such Proceeding as to which Indemnitee has notified the Corporation:

(a) The Corporation shall be entitled to participate therein at its own expense; or

(b) Except as otherwise provided below, to the extent that it may wish, the Corporation, jointly with any other indemnifying Party similarly notified, will be entitled to assume the defense thereof, with counsel satisfactory to Indemnitee. Indemnitee's consent to such counsel may not be unreasonably withheld.

After notice from the Corporation to Indemnitee of its election to assume the defense, the Corporation will not be liable to Indemnitee under this Article for any Expenses subsequently incurred by Indemnitee in connection with such defense. However, Indemnitee shall continue to have the right to employ its counsel in such Proceeding, at Indemnitee's expense; and if:

(a) The employment of counsel by Indemnitee has been authorized by the Corporation;

(b) Indemnitee shall have reasonably concluded that there may be a conflict of interest between the Corporation and Indemnitee in the conduct of such defense; or

(c) The Corporation shall not, in fact, have employed counsel to assume the defense of such Proceeding;

then the fees and expenses of Indemnitee's counsel shall be at the expense of the Corporation.

The Corporation shall not be entitled to assume the defense of any Proceeding brought by, or on behalf of, the Corporation or as to which Indemnitee shall reasonably have made the conclusion that a conflict of interest may exist between the Corporation and the Indemnitee in the conduct of the defense.

2. Information to be Submitted and Method of Determination and Authorization of Indemnification. For the purpose of pursuing rights to indemnification under the Articles of Incorporation and/or this Article, Indemnitee shall submit to the Board of Directors a sworn statement requesting indemnification and reasonable evidence of all amounts for which such indemnification is requested (together, the sworn statement and the evidence constitute an "Indemnification Statement").

Submission of an Indemnification Statement to the Board of Directors shall create a presumption that the Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification hereunder, and the Corporation shall, within sixty (60) calendar days thereafter, make the payments requested in the Indemnification Statement to, or for the benefit of, the Indemnitee, unless: (a) within such sixty (60) calendar day period it shall be determined by the Corporation that the Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification under the Articles of Incorporation; (b) such vote shall be based upon clear and convincing evidence (sufficient to rebut the foregoing presumption); and (c) the Indemnitee shall receive notice of such determination in the form of a record, which shall disclose with particularity the evidence upon which the determination is based.

The foregoing determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors not at the time parties to the Proceeding; (b) if a quorum cannot be obtained under (a) in this paragraph, by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the Board of Directors, in which designation Directors who are Parties may participate, consisting solely of two or more Directors not at the time Parties to the Proceeding; or (c) by special legal counsel as provided by RCW 23B.08.550.

Any determination that the Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification, and any failure to make the payments requested in the Indemnification Statement, shall be subject to judicial review by any court of competent jurisdiction.

3. Special Procedure Regarding Advance for Expenses. An Indemnitee seeking payment of Expenses in advance of a final disposition of the Proceeding must furnish the Corporation, as part of the Indemnification Statement:

(a) written affirmation, given in the form of a record, of the Indemnitee's good faith belief that the Indemnitee has met the standard of conduct required to be eligible for indemnification; and

(b) a written undertaking, in the form of a record constituting an unlimited general obligation of the Indemnitee, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined by the final disposition of a court of competent jurisdiction that the Indemnitee did not meet the required standard of conduct.

If the Corporation determines that indemnification is authorized, the Indemnitee's request for advance of Expenses shall be granted.

4. Settlement. The Corporation is not liable to indemnify Indemnitee for any amounts paid in settlement of any Proceeding without the Corporation's consent, given in the form of a record. The Corporation shall not settle any Proceeding in any manner that would impose any penalty or limitation on Indemnitee without Indemnitee's consent, given in the form of a record. Neither the Corporation nor Indemnitee may unreasonably withhold its consent to a proposed settlement.

D. Contract and Related Rights.

1. Contract Rights. The right of an Indemnitee to indemnification and advancement of Expenses is a contract right upon which the Indemnitee shall be presumed to have relied in determining to serve, or to continue to serve, in his or her capacity with the Corporation. Such right shall continue as long as the Indemnitee shall be subject to any possible Proceeding. Any amendment to, or repeal of, this Article shall not adversely affect any right or protection of an Indemnitee with respect to any acts or omissions of such Indemnitee occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

2. Optional Insurance, Contracts, and Funding. The Corporation may:

(a) Maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any Indemnitee against any Liability;

(b) Enter into contracts with any Indemnitee in furtherance of this Article and consistent with the Act; and

(c) Create a trust fund, grant a security interest, or use other means (including, without limitation, a letter of credit) to ensure the payment of such amounts as may be necessary to effect indemnification as provided in this Article.

3. Severability. If any provision or application of this Article shall be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Article and its remaining applications shall not be affected thereby, and shall continue in full force and effect.

4. Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If (a) a claim under the Articles of Incorporation and/or this Article for indemnification is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty (60) days after notice of a claim has been received by the Corporation; or (b) a claim under this Article for advancement of Expenses is not paid in full by the Corporation within twenty (20) days after notice of a claim, then the Indemnitee may, but need not, at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. To the extent successful in whole or in part, the Indemnitee shall be entitled to also be paid the expense (to be proportionately prorated if the Indemnitee is only partially successful) of prosecuting such claim.

Neither (a) the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors or independent legal counsel) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such Proceeding that indemnification or reimbursement or advancement of Expenses to the Indemnitee is proper in the circumstances, nor (b) an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors or its independent legal counsel) that the Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification or to the reimbursement or advancement of Expenses, shall be a defense to the Proceeding or create a presumption that the Indemnitee is not so entitled.

E. Exceptions. Notwithstanding any other provision herein or in the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation to the contrary, the Corporation shall not be obligated pursuant to the terms of this Article to indemnify or advance Expenses to Indemnitee with respect to any Proceeding:

1. Initiated or brought voluntarily by Indemnitee and not by way of defense, except with respect to Proceedings brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification under the Bylaws, or any other statute or law or as otherwise required under the statute; but such indemnification or advancement of Expenses may be provided by the Corporation in specific cases if the Board of Directors finds it to be appropriate.

2. Instituted by Indemnitee to enforce or interpret rights under the Bylaws, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that each of the material assertions made by Indemnitee in such Proceeding was not made in good faith or was frivolous.

3. For which any of the Expenses or Liabilities for indemnification being sought have been paid directly to Indemnitee by an insurance carrier under an insurance policy maintained by the Corporation.

4. If the Corporation is prohibited by its Articles of Incorporation, the Act or other applicable law as then in effect from paying such indemnification and/or advancement of Expenses.

5. If the Corporation's payment of indemnification would result in an act of self-dealing within the meaning of Section 4941(d) of the Code or the corresponding provision of any future federal tax law.
